

UF President Kent Fuchs

Dr. Kent Fuchs became the 12th President of the University of Florida in January 2015. He came to UF from Cornell University, where he served as provost. He also served as dean of the Cornell College of Engineering. Before that, he was the head of the School of Electrical and Computer Engineering at Purdue University and a professor in the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering and the Coordinated Science Laboratory at the University of Illinois. President Fuchs is a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He earned his doctoral degree in electrical engineering from the University of Illinois. He holds a master's degree in divinity from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School and a bachelor's degree from Duke University.

